UNI Basketball

Zeke's the name and round ball's the game, gentlemen.

Wesley Dean Hogeland prefers the nickname Zeke and he prefers winning basketball.

The prospects are good and Hogeland has shunned some of the expected 'new coach' hesitancy. He's seen the Panthers in action and he's coached against enough North Central Conference teams to know what it takes to play winning basketball.

Hogeland inherited a list full of veterans, some now gone, and an undefeated freshman team that has yielded seven top prospects.

What he had to do in pre-season drills was evaluate this material and blend it into his brand of basketball.

He starts off with a pair of all-conference performers for starters. Senior Jerry Waugh and junior Ken Huelman both made the honor team last fall with Waugh adding fourth team Little All-America laurels as well.

Both appear certain starters. Waugh, at 6-3, can jump with anyone, shoot better than most and smooth you to death with his fluid movement.

Huelman, who grew another inch and a quarter, is now 6-8½ and comes off a spectacular sophomore year, scoring 392 points, the most in history for a newcomer. He adds beef with 250 pounds.

Other starters back include guard Darrell Jesse, Larry Lust, Bill Van Zante and Terry Payne. Only Jesse appears headed for a repeat role for sophomores are making their presence known.

Newcomers Skip Anderson (its Vernon) and Rod Larson have given notice they are ready for varsity competition. Anderson, at 6-5, was the leading scorer on the frosh team last year. Larson, at 6-5, was second in scoring, first in rebounding. Then add 6-6 John Martin and 6-3 Barry Beekman and the battle for starting spots is on.

Hogeland will certainly have one of the tallest teams in UNI history and he plans to utilize it. He likes to work an offense geared around four big men and he'll use five if he can find a giant that can handle the tricky guard position.

He'll treat eager Panther fans to a different style of ball, with more emphasis on running than they saw under Norm Stewart.

What Hogeland jumps into in the North Central Conference is a pot boiler. Every one of the teams, seven in all, is rated a contender. It could be the wildest race in history with four new coaches sprinkled around.

Hogeland has questions to answer before he tackles that hairy league tangle.

Can sophomores cut the mustard defensively as he knows they must in the NCC to let the team survive? Can he get help on the boards for the overworked Huelman? Can he come up with the guard who can make the 'big man' offense hum. And, can a relatively young team absorb a new basketball philosophy fast enough and well enough to jell into a big winner?

These are typical 'new coach' problems that must be solved. Hogeland starts with a plus... a team that came on strong at the end of last year to develop a winning attitude. And its a team with enough talent that everyone will have to hustle for starting spots, the result end being a strong, active bench.

Basketball Sketches

Donald Anderson, F, 6-4, Soph., Clear Lake, Ia.

A reserve last year on the unbeaten freshman team Anderson came fast at the end to make a major contribution. Hogeland hopes his progress continues to zoom. An all-stater as a prep.

Vernon (Skip) Anderson, F, 6-5, Soph., Cedar Falls, Ia.

Skip led the freshmen in scoring last year, was second in rebounding and a bear on defense. That may be enough to put him in a starting position. A former all-stater, and constant hustler, he's capable of handling outside guard duties despite height.

Barry Beekman, G, 6-3, Soph., Storm Lake, Ia.

Beekman, like Don Anderson, had some trouble getting untracked as a freshman, but he came on with the blue-chip, clutch play. Has good size for a guard, is an unselfish player who feeds well.

Larry Clausen, G, 5-10, Jr., Cedar Rapids, Ia., Letterman

Clausen grows on you. He's there, but he's small, but at the end he's playing for you. It worked that way last year as Clausen kept firing up the Panthers and finally closed the year as a starter. He figures to draw more duty sooner this trip around.

'66-67	10	13-30	12-21	32	38	3.8

Ken Huelman, C, 6-8, Jr., Schaller, La., Letterman

Huelman had a big sophomore season, becoming the highest scoring rookie in UNI history, with 392 points, and making the NCC all-conference team. He just kept getting better and better and he keeps growing, an inch and a quarter since the last campaign. A good bet for all-America honors before he's through.

'66-67	22	150-303	92-190	281	392	17.9

Darrell Jesse, G, 6-0, Jr., Jesup, Ia., Letterman

Jesse started all the way as a sophomore and is looking even better as a junior. Experience has given him confidence and a more aggressive style. A good outside shooter, he harnessed the gun too often as a sophomore and can add another threat from long range. Number three scorer last year.

YEAR	G	FG-FGA	FT-FTA	REB.	TP	AVE.
'66-67	22	68-140	38-55	43	174	7.9

Bill Van Zante, F, 6-4, Pella, Ia., Letterman

Another part-time starter last year, Van Zante can shoot with anyone. He needs more aggressiveness on the boards but should come on with the experience he earned last year.

YEAR	G	FG-FGA	FT-FTA	REB.	TP	AVE.
'66-67	20	45-113	25-34	62	115	5.7

Larry Lust, F-G, 6-2, Jr., Newton, Iowa, Letterman

A part-time starter last year, Lust can do the job at guard or forward. An excellent driver he'll be valuable property as a starter or top reserve in Hogeland's action packed offense. Lust was an all-stater on Newton's state championship team.

'66-67	19	29-80	31-40	41	89	4.6

John Martin, F, 6-6, Soph., Cedar Falls, Ia.

Martin was the third party in the freshman team's big three. A solid rebounder, good defender and clutch shooter. Martin is in the thick of the fight for a starting role this year. He may be the most underrated player on hand. A prep all-stater at UNI's lab school

Gary Jensen, G, 6-0, Jr., Indianola, Ia.

Cut last year in his try for the squad, Jensen is back and shooting better than ever. His ability to hit from outside could earn him important playing time.

Terry Payne, G, 6-1, Sr., Moline, Ill., Letterman

A starter most of last year, Payne lost his spot late in the season to Clausen. He still finished as the team's number four scorer and number three rebounder. Payne adds experience to the backcourt as one of the team's two seniors.

'66-67	26	42-111	32-53	71	122	6.1

Tom Snyder, G, 5-11, Jr., Mitchellville, Ia.

Snyder, a junior college transfer, is of unknown quality, but Hogeland likes his speed and outside shooting ability shown in early drills. He could be a sleeper in the UNI plans.

Rick Wilson, G, 6-1, Jr., Bloomfield, Ia., Letterman

Wilson was a one-game sensation last year. Coming off the bench he rammed home eight quick baskets. Wilson, an outstanding outside shooter, saw little action before and after the big spurge and must improve his defensive ability to earn more playing time. Can still kill a zone.

'66-67	10	13-20	3-7	3	29	2.9

Jerry Waugh, F, 6-3, Sr., Mt. Airy, Ia., Letterman

Waugh is UNI's Mr. Big. A smooth as silk performer, he can do it all and do it with grace. He led the Panthers in scoring in his first full season, registering the fifth highest single season total in history and he did it with the pressure on as the team's lone returning starter while playing most of the time with four sophomores. Waugh was named to the all-conference team and the fourth team Little All-America.

Totals	27	199-387	106-143	210	494	18.3

Rod Larson, C, 6-5, Soph., Roland, Ia.

Given a good chance to crack the starting lineup along with Skip Anderson. Larson was second a year ago in scoring and led the frosh in rebounding. He has good size to use under the boards and a million moves from in close. Can also hit from outside for the high percentage. Must improve defense to stay in starting role.

UNI Swimming

Northern Iowa's school swimming records should take quite a battering in 1968.

The Panthers, starting their second tank season under coach Glen Henry are improved. The first try at it brought an expected 0-7 season and poor times.

But Henry had them working and learning and the times started coming at the end of the season. With some help from the freshman team, a transfer or two and the return of six lettermen UNI should chop their own record book to pieces and start giving the opposition a more solid challenge.

Returning lettermen are Jim Perkins, Jim Johnson, Bob Parker, Doug Baker, Mike Bentley, and Bob Pike. Johnson is the lone senior.

Things are looking up and so is Henry. . he even has a diver this year in junior college transfer Bruce Mourlam.

UNI Wrestling

One year ago wrestling coach Chuck Patten set three goals for his Northern Iowa Panthers. They reached all of them and Patten was a happy man.

The goals were to: 1) win more than 50 per cent of its dual matches (UNI finished 10-7-1); win the conference title (they did with five individual champions); and 3) finish in the top ten in the NCAA College Division tournament (UNI finished third).

More predictions or goals from Patten? Not in 1967-68.

Patten has pluses and a big minus to contend with, but no goals. "This could be the best balanced team I've had at UNI," he said. "For the first time we have some strength at the lower weights and we have two men who finished second in the NCAA College Division finals in co-captain Jerry Bond and heavyweight Kent Osboe.

"Our biggest loss, of course was two-time national champion Don Parker. He was a magnificent leader and a big winner."

Patten returns four other conference champions. He has 115-pound Wayne Shutt, 137-pound Bond (a two-time NCC champion) 152-pound Tom Horton and Osboe.

"If we can stay away from injuries," Patten adds, "this could be our best year since I've been here. We have a similar team to last year's edition. We lost Parker, but three or four others should start to wrestle like champions."

Patten reviewed his squad by weights:

123 — Paul Stinson was good enough to win three state prep titles as Waterloo East and earn high honors in junior college tournaments. He should be good enough to help us a lot and makes this weight its strongest in years. We'll try to work in more 115-pound matches for Shutt.

130 — Sophomore Stan Slessor is the man to beat out here. He won a state prep title and has a bright future with us.

137 — Three newcomers are possibilities here. Brad Stolz, Marv Reiland and Rex Brown can give us strength. Bond may wrestle at this weight again at tournament time.

145 — Jerry Bond is an outstanding wrestler who's just a step away from a national title. He finished second last year after winning his second NCC crown.

152 — The middle weights depend on Jim Guyer. If he goes to 160 then Tom Horton will probably cut to 152. Horton is a defending league champion and should have an outstanding year. Others are Greg Smith, Sam Runyan and Dave Steinkamp.

160 — It'll be Jim Guyer or Horton here. Guyer is a future champion, who missed last year's tournaments because of injury. He's our other co-captain.

167 — Duane Nosbisch, a junior college transfer, is the top candidate here if Guyer goes to 160.

177 — Filling Parker's spot will be tough. Letterman Larry Messerly or newcomer Dan Mashek are top candidates. Dennis Healy or Skip Bellock, off the football squad, could also be contenders here.

Hvy — Osboe is back along with Bruce Gulick, who did so well before Osboe became eligible. Gulick, at 222 pounds, is a little small but Osboe has good size at 6-5 and 255 pounds. Osboe finished second last year in the nationals as a sophomore.

Patten's crew will again meet many of the best, the highlight an afternoon confrontation with defending national champion Michigan State at Cedar Falls. Other top foes include Minnesota, Iowa, Purdue, Mankato State, Moorhead State and Illinois.

Wrestling Sketches

Vince (Skip) Bellock, 167-77, Soph., Wheaton, Ill.

Bellock, a member of the football team, reported late but has the size and speed to make himself a contender at either 167 or 177 pounds.

Jerry Bond, 145-52, Senior, New Sharon, Ia., Co-Captain, Letterman

Bond is UNI's number one man this year after winning his second NCC title and placing second in the NCAA college division finals. Posted a brilliant 18-4-2. Fast becoming a pinner, Bond should have a banner year.

Milroy (Buzz) Brown, Sophomore, Jesup, Ia.

Brown will be in the thick of the fight for the 130-pound spot but may be a year away from his greatest effectiveness.

Jim Guyer, 167, Junior, West Union, Ia., Co-Captain, Letterman

Guyer had an outstanding sophomore year before an injury sidelined him just prior to tournament time. He's considered one of UNI's best bets in the tournament schedule. Guyer has great wrestling balance and toughness to make it pay off. From same high school that produced Don Parker.

Dennis Healy, 177, Senior, Jefferson, Ia.

Still another footballer, Healy has had little mat training, but is strong as a bull and has great determination.

Tom Horton, 152-60, Senior Fori Dodge, Ia., Letterman

Horton, a transfer, won the NCC 160-pound crown last year after an excellent opening season. A tough battler Horton can go the distance at top speed and is very hard to pin. Could rise to national prominence this year.

Jim Kinyon, 123-30, Senior, Greenfield, Iowa, Letterman

Kinyon may have wrestled at one weight above his best spot last year. He's in the thick of a great battle for the 123-pound job this year after an average season last year at 130.

John Maehl 152-60, Sophomore Elkader, Ia.

Maehl may have to sit out much of this year because of the class talent in front of him, but he's proven to be a worker and a learner who will be ready if called upon.

Robert Moen, 145-52, Sophomore New Hampton, Ia.

Moen will be on a reserve status most of this year behind the talented Jerry Bond, but can pick up mountains of experience from it.

Dan Mashek, 177-191, Sophomore, Waterloo, Ia.

Mashek is as tough as they come and he learned his lessons well at Waterloo West. He had trouble, after reporting late, in going the distance last year at top speed but has the benefit of a full pre-season to solve that. Has a bright future on the Panther mat.

Larry Messerly, 167-77, Senior,
Fort Dodge, Ia., Letterman

Messerly was a backup man last year and may end up there again, but the Chief never lets up. Gained some valuable experience last year behind Parker and Guyer and it could lift him to a starting spot.

Duane Nosbisch, 177, Junior,
New Hampton, Ia.

A junior college transfer from Rochester, Minn., Nosbisch (pronounced Noz-bish) is the likely replacement for Don Parker at 177. He was on hand last year but sat out. Could bounce right into national prominence. Must beat out sturdy bids by Mashek, Bellock and Healy. If he starts he'll have earned it.

Sam Runyan, 152, Sophomore
Cedar Falls, Ia.

Runyan may be a year away and Bond may be the reason if he moves up to 152. Runyan needs experience and like other newcomers he can get it battling veterans day in and day out.

Kent Osboe, Hvy., Junior
Fort Dodge, Ia., Letterman

Osboe came like a flying fortress last year. After transferring he became eligible at the semester, won the NCC heavyweight title, finished second in the NCAA college division meet and lost only to Michigan State's Jeff Richardson and Iowa State's Ted Tuinstra, both by a 3-2 count in regular season. Could be UNI's next national champion if Bond doesn't beat him to it. Has great speed for a 255-pounder.

7, Sophomore
Eagle Grove, Iowa

Reiland is a young man in a hurry and he may earn that starting spot the weak spots in UNI's armor a year ago. Will battle Brad Stolz and Buzz Brown for the spot.

Wayne Shutt, 115, Senior,
Des Moines, Ia., Letterman

The Mouse has found his spot and Patten may search for more 11match meetings. For two years Shutt has battled at 123, eight pounds too much for him many times. He won the NCC 115-pound crown and came on strong at the end of the season.

'66-67	6	11	0	1
Totals	9	16	0	1

Dave Steinkamp, 160, Senior,
Charles City, Ia., Letterman

Steinkamp had a cinderella finish two years ago, coming from nowhere to place sixth in the nationals. Then a freak accident sidelined him last year. Dave will battle Horton for a starting role and push him all the way.

YEAR	W	L	T	PINS
'65-66	6	9	1	1

Stan Slessor, 130, Sophomore, Reinbeck, Ia.

A prep champion, Slessor is expected to shore up the 130-pound class, a trouble spot last year. Slessor had a good freshman year and earns the tab of battler. A smart wrestler.

Greg Smith, 152, Sophomore
Ft. Madison, Ia.

The middle weights are crowded with talent and Smith is part of it. He may push someone around to another weight and if solid enough will allow Bond to stay at 145 where he is most effective.

Paul Stinson, 123, Junior,
Waterloo, Iowa

UNI is going to be stronger at 123 than it has been in many years and Stinson is the main reason. A transfer from Lamar JC, Colorado, Stinson is a seasoned battler who won three state titles at Waterloo East.

Robert (Brad) Stolz, 137, Sophomore,
New Hampton, Ia.

Stolz and Reiland should have some spirited battles over the 137-pound post. He had a good yearling year.

Indoor Track

Northern Iowa's 'eat 'em alive' hurdle crew is back intact, the distance team should be stronger, there is young, talented blood in the field events and a promising sprinter on hand for Jack Jennett.

Jennett is looking forward to the indoor track season with some relish.

The hurdle team, ranked sixth nationally in the shuttle relay last spring, is headed by Larry McCready with Herb Grigg and Mark Sanborn offering help and competition. They led UNI to both indoor and outdoor titles last year by completely dominating both the high and lows.

Tom Denney heads an improved distance corps. Denney set new school and stadium records last year in the mile and two mile runs.

Jennett lost his record setting pole vaulter and triple jumper in co-captains Don McKinney and Bill Rauhauser, but has sophomore help from Clyde Hovick and Steve Speth in the pole vault and Craig Fay in the triple and long jump.

Bob Ruchti is among the missing in the sprinting field but sophomore Larry White and Carl Campbell join Ron Miller and Rusty Pointer.

Gymnastics

Garf Stych is an optimist. UNI's head gymnastic coach needs to be as he goes into the second season.

UNI started the sport last year, finished 0-7 in dual meets and Stych struggled home with only four athletes.

Things will get better in 1968. . .at least from the numbers standpoint. Stych starts the season with 10 men and at least two for every apparatus, a luxury he did not always have last year.

He returns two lettermen, Keith Hicklin and co-captain Russ Telecky. Co-captain Harvey Hop, only a sophomore, is expected to add points and a squad that is still green and carries only one senior. . .Telecky.

Stych should be in more meets this year, whether the Panthers win or not. . . For a fledgling unit any victory will still be a major upset.

PRESS INFORMATION

All home basketball, wrestling and gymnastic events are held at Men's Gymnasium on the Northern Iowa campus, with the exception of three basketball games this winter. UNI will host Augustana, South Dakota State and North Dakota U. at McElroy Auditorium in Waterloo. UNI swimming meets are held at the Northern University High School pool on 19th street, directly north of the UNI campus. Men's Gym seats 3,000 and has its main press box on the south side with three radio booths on the north side of the court.

Requests for press tickets and permission to broadcast should be directed to Dick Dietl, Sports Information Director, UNI.

CHUCK PATTEN

Chuck Patten has UNI back in the swing in collegiate wrestling. Now in his fourth year as head coach Patten has lifted his team from the depths to one of its highest pinnacles. Patten came on the scene for the 1964-65 season and got globbered right off by injuries, losing 23 performers. His first team had a record, 2-8-1. Its improved to a 6-5 and then 10-7-1 mark. Last year the club won the conference title and finished third in the college division nationals. Chuck is a UNI grad, circa 1961, where he wrestled for his predecessor, Bill Koll. Patten prepped at Waterloo East, got his MA at Oregon and did high school coaching at Exeter, Calif., and Reedsport, Ore., taking both teams to state titles.

ZEKE HOGELAND

Wesley Dean 'Zeke' Hogeland prefers Zeke and winning basketball teams. A UNI graduate, Hogeland played guard under Hon Nordly and then coached in prep circles at Decorah and Washington and then moved up to Mason City junior college. From there he headed north to Bemidji State for a five year stay before accepting the Panther post. His final Bemidji club won the Minnesota College league hands down, going undefeated for a league first in that department. Hogeland replaces the highly successful Norm Stewart, who also headed for his alma mater. . .Missouri. Hogeland hails from Marshalltown.

JACK JENNETT

In his fifth year of coaching track at UNI, Jennett would like to repeat his fourth campaign when his squads won both indoor and outdoor conference titles. A native of Sac City, Jennett was a track and football star at Drake. He started his coaching career at Lake City and went from there to Morningside and Buena Vista prior to his arrival at UNI to replace the late Art Dickinson. His teams have won one cross country crown, two indoor titles and two outdoor crowns.

GARF STYCH

Garf Stych, a graduate of Iowa, and his gymnastics team survived the maiden season and an 0-7 record. Stych sees brighter days and it begins with a bigger squad. Stych earned his gymnastics stripes with the Hawkeyes and went on to coach at North High School in Eau Claire, Wisconsin prior to his arrival to start UNI's program. He's from Cedar Rapids.

GLEN HENRY

Busy Glen Henry, who coached the UNI freshman football team to a 3-1 season, takes his swimming team into its second year looking for better times and win number one. Henry's maiden team went 0-7 in its first try at swimming. Starting something, particularly swimming, is not new to Henry, who graduated from Chadron State, Nebraska, and then returned to his alma mater to start the tank sport.
